institution by the authority of the Central Government or the State Government, under whose jurisdiction such institutions are established. The Central Government has so far recognized three institutions deemed to be universities and one Central University (Aligarh Muslim University) as minority educational institutions. The recognition granted to the Aligarh Muslim University is sub-judice in the Supreme Court of India. Information in respect of educational institutions falling under the jurisdiction of States is not maintained centrally. The National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions (NCMEI) is also competent under Sections 12 B and 12C of the (NCMEI) Act, 2004 to decide on the minority status of an educational institution.

(d) According to information from the institutions recognized by the Central Government as minority educational institutions the number of students enrolled is as given below:–

Institution	Year	Total number of students admitted	No. of students belonging to minority communities
1. Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi	2005-06	1179	718
	2006-07	1109	700
	2007-08	1158	780
2. Karunya University, Coimbatore	2005-06	1167	937
	2006-07	1665	1198
	2007-08	1879	1263
3. Allahabad Agriculture Institute, Allahabad	2005-06	2413	370
	2006-07	2568	380
	2007-08	2622	453

Indo-US power agreement

*205. SHRI SANJAY RAUT: Will the Minister of POWER be pleased to state:

(a) whether any agreement in the power sector has been signed during his recent U.S. visit;

(b) if so, to what extent the agreement is likely to help in improving the sagging power situation in the country;

(c) whether any power plants by the American companies are proposed to be set up in the country, as per the agreement; and

(d) if so, the details thereof, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF POWER (SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SHINDE): (a) No, Sir.

(b) to (d) Do not arise.